

Pete Kiser BIO

Pete Kiser has been in the HVACR Industry for 52 years. He is an Unlimited Michigan Mechanical Contractor. He has worked for Limbach, Service Manager for Trane Corporation, Territory Manager for Carrier Corporation/Carrier Great Lakes and Behler-Young Company.

He is certified by several HVACR Organizations: Building Performance Institute (BPI) Proctor and a Certified Building Analyst. North American Technician Excellence Proctor (NATE), National Comfort Institute (NCI) Residential & Light Commercial Air Balance Certified. Universal Refrigerant Transition & Recovery Certification from Ferris State, ACCA & Trane Corporation.

Pete is a member of ASHRAE, Refrigeration Service Engineers Society (RSES), Board Member of the Michigan Energy Efficiency Contractors Association (MEECA),

Board Member of Southeast Air Conditioning Contractors of America (SEMIACCA) and an Advisory Board Member at Henry Ford College (HFC).

Pete has done HVACR Industry Application, Service and Installation training for Trane Corporation, Carrier Corporation/Carrier Great Lakes, Behler-Young Company, Air Conditioning Contractors of America (ACCA & SEMIACCA), North American Technician Excellence (NATE), Refrigeration Service Engineers Society (RSES), Wayne County Community College (WCCCD), Baker College and currently an Adjunct Instructor at Henry Ford College (HFC) in Dearborn, Michigan.

Pete is a Licensed Mechanical Inspector in the State of Michigan, and he has done training classes at several Michigan Mechanical Inspectors meetings. He has Lifetime Instructors Approval from the Bureau of Construction Codes in the State of Michigan to teach Mechanical Inspectors, Mechanical Contractors and HVACR Technicians.